INMATE REQUEST: Mr. Warden, Prison inmates have a recognized First Amendment interest in receiving mail. See: Griffin v. Lombardi, 946 F.2d 604 (8th Cir. 1991). Therefore, I would like to know why would the mail room reject my mail without me been notified of any problem with my mails. I spoke with my family, they states that an officer at the booking states "to my family they should not send any pictures of any kind to this prison" and the mail room staff never informed me about this issues. This is a Bad Faith pattern by your staff. by law we can have the court take care of this issues or you. See: Proctor v. Martin, 416 U.S. 396 (1974).

(If you need more space, use plain paper.)
